Background: You're getting too old, too old for this nonsense. You've been a Senator for more years than you care to count; you've gotten white-haired and dried up in that time. It seems like your struggle with Palpatine and his henchmen has gone on forever. A never-ending struggle for the very soul of the Senate and the galaxy, a struggle which consumed the years of youth like butterflies in a flame.

You'll not give up yet! The fight has passed beyond the Senate chamber into the hard vacuum of space. You can't fly a starship or fire a laser cannon, but determination, an understanding of your adversaries, and an ability to command still count for something. Still, still . . . you yearn for the old days, for men like Talon, Kenobi, and (heaven help us) Skywalker. There were giants in those days. . .

Personality: You're no-nonsense, brisk, brusque and capable. You can talk your way past a barricade and have stormtroopers saluting the August Senator in no time. Your stamina isn't what it used to be, and you have no stomach for violence — but you never display weakness.

A Quote: "And snap to it, young man!"

Connection With Other Characters: You may know the Retired Captain or other Senatorials or Nobles socially and politically. You may know the Bounty Hunter or Merc as a former employee. Practically any character might come from the planet you represented as Senator.
